

A RESPONSIBLE RECRUITMENT TOOL for US FRESH PRODUCE BUSINESSES

RRT RESPONSIBLE RECRUITMENT TOOLKIT.ORG

Already used globally, the Responsible Recruitment Toolkit \(RRT\) online tool can help businesses implement, demonstrate and oversee ethical and professional farmworker recruitment and management.

US fresh produce businesses face an ongoing challenge of recruiting enough workers to meet harvesting needs to satisfy consumer demand. Workers recruited through the H-2A program are increasingly important to US businesses. The RRT online tool supports businesses to reduce those risks.

FARM LABOR CONTRACTOR, RECRUITER OR PART OF AN IN-HOUSE RECRUITMENT TEAM?

Use the tool to differentiate your business in the marketplace.

Subscribe to the RRT online tool to access responsible recruitment guidance and:

- Build capacity for hiring staff and other managers
- Assess progress in real time via the self-assessment tool
- Avoid common pitfalls that increase risk
- Learn from real-life cases
- Identify US legal requirements
- Satisfy labor standards and client requirements
- Show progress to clients

GROWER, BUYER OR RETAILER?

Promote the tool with suppliers to support responsible recruitment practices.

Maximize the ethical treatment of jobseekers and workers in your supply chains by encouraging suppliers to subscribe to the RRT online tool and share their self-assessment reports with you.

- Learn about responsible recruitment practices in your supply chain
